Income – Capital Gains and Losses	Capital gains for like assets may be considered as effective income. The earnings trend or loss must be considered in the overall analysis of this income type. If the trend results in a gain, it may be added as effective income. If the trend consistently shows a loss, it must be deducted from the total income. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An average of the gain or loss for the previous 2 years, as disclosed on the borrowers 1040 Schedule D, will be used to calculate the income • When the income from this source represents a substantial portion of the borrower's income, tax returns for the previous 2 years must be reviewed (regardless of documentation type) to determine an accurate estimated average of the earnings (e.g. an asset sold during the year might be an income-producing asset, which could result in a reduction in future income) • Borrowers must have an asset base in order to use capital gains on an on-going basis. NOTE: A one-time capital gain or loss will not be considered as a gain or loss in determining income available to the borrower.
Income – Farm	Net farm income reported on the borrower's income tax return (as reported on Schedule F) is eligible with the addition of depreciation, pension, amortization and depletion. NOTE: Farm income cannot be generated by the subject property; income producing properties are ineligible under the Elite Plus program.
Income – Fixed	Fixed income includes alimony/child support, retirement/pension, social security (including dependent's social security), temporary/permanent disability, and VA disability. Fixed income is an eligible source of income subject to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence of the borrower's receipt of the income and the probability the income will continue for a minimum of 3 years past the application date must be provided. NOTE: Borrowers on temporary leave (e.g. maternity, short-term disability, etc.) will be considered on a case-by-case basis subject to REMN management approval. If allowed, the income will be subject to Fannie Mae's Temporary Leave Income requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fixed income that is verified as non-taxable, may be adjusted or "grossed-up" by 125% subject to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Only the net income will be used for determining disposable/residual income (Medicare and insurance payments are excluded), - The borrower must clearly benefit as a result of the income being grossed-up to qualify, and - The borrower's net income (before being grossed-up) is sufficient to pay all debts. The following non-taxable income is ineligible to be grossed up: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foreign earned income, • Foster care income, and • Housing allowance
Income – Interest and Dividend	Interest and dividend income is eligible subject to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verified through 2 years tax returns as a stable source of income, and • Proof the funds are still on deposit in the financial institution and/or investment portfolio account(s) is required. NOTE: Income must be proportionately reduced if funds from the account(s) are used for closing in a purchase money transaction
Income – Military	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Income received for clothing and quarter's allowance, hardship and/or hazard may be included as stable income if there is a likelihood of continuance. • The non-taxable income received for Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) and Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) may be grossed up 125% • Other allowances may be grossed up if documentation is provided evidencing the allowance is non-taxable

Cash-Out Transactions

A cash-out refinance is a refinance that does not meet the rate/term definition and would include a refinance where the borrower receives cash or when an open ended subordinate lien that does not meet the rate/term seasoning requirement is refinanced.

- If the existing mortgage on the subject property was a cash-out transaction closed within the previous 6 months (measured from Note date to Note date) the transaction is ineligible for cash-out; only a rate/term refinance is eligible.
- Properties owned free and clear are always considered a cash-out refinance.
- A cash-out transaction may include the following:
 - Payoff of the existing first mortgage,
 - Closing costs and prepaid items (interest, taxes, insurance),
 - The amount of any subordinate mortgage lien being paid off,
 - Any cash-in-hand to the borrower as indicated on the Closing Disclosure.
- A letter, signed by the borrower, disclosing the purpose of the cash-out is required on all transactions. Additionally, the purpose of the cash-out must be indicated on the loan application.
- Maximum cash-in-hand to the borrower is $1,000,000 and is subject to the following LTV reductions:
 - Cash-out up to $250,000: No reduction to LTV is required
 - Cash-out of $250,001 to $500,000: 5% LTV reduction required
 - Cash-out of $500,001 to $1,000,000: 10% reduction required

Delayed Financing

Delayed financing transactions are eligible subject to cash-out transactions guidelines.

Inherited Properties

- Inherited properties are eligible for rate/term and cash-out refinance transactions.
- Properties inherited < 12 months from the date of the loan application are subject to the following:
 - Transaction is considered a cash-out refinance, and
 - Equity owners must be paid through settlement. A written agreement s, signed by all parties, that states the terms of the buy-out and property transfer, is required, and
 - Subject property must be out of probate and the property is vested in the borrower's name, and
 - Current appraised value is used to determine LTV.

Buying Out a Co-Owners Interest

A refinance transaction resulting from a divorce settlement and/or dissolution of a domestic partnership, and the borrower is required to buy-out the interest of the other co-owner will be considered a rate/term refinance when the following applies:

- Documentation is obtained that confirms the subject property was jointly owned by the parties for a minimum of 12 months prior to the funding of the new loan, and
- A copy of the fully executed written agreement or court approved divorce decree that details the terms of the property settlement and the proposed disbursement of the refinance proceeds, and
- The borrower who will be acquiring sole ownership of the subject property does not receive any funds from the transaction.
